A Novel Sanitarium.

(Courier-Journal.)

Every tourist who has been in Mammoth Cave will recall the two small square stone houses standing on the left-hand side of the Grand avenue, about a mile within the entrance. Likewise the hard, impenetrable description of the guide who imparts the information that they were built in the fifties for occupation by a colony of consumptives, who vainly sought relief from the certain fate which the inebriate temperature of the outside world foreshadowed, in the dry and unchangeable atmosphere of the cave, but how, after an unsatisfied sojourn in the everlasting gloom and silence of the caverns, exile, retreated gladly to the earth's surface, where the sunlight and the flowers at least lessened the terrors of death. After more than thirty years a project has been outlined, which looks to securing for invalids

the same results anticipated by the Mammoth Cave experiment, but under different conditions. A cave exists not far removed from the great one, which travelers seek, the air in which is asserted to be purer and drier than that known anywhere else. A company has been formed to build a sanitarium over the smaller cave, and to bore a shaft to the chamber containing the stimulating and medicinal air, and, by a pumping arrangement, force it upward and distribute it throughout the rooms of the hotel in quantities and quality to suit the patients. This sanitarium

Quixotic, but the promoters of the enterprise seem to be thoroughly convinced of its practical character, and the people of the surrounding region regard the proposed scheme with seriousness, not unmixed, of course, with incredulity, as to its results. The cave from which these deeds are to be derived is said to be discovered not a recently discovered one, but by some means, there is a tradition that the Indians transported their sick within its healing walls, and an evidence of the extraordinary nature of the atmosphere is found in the fact that from a small cave, construction of a cottage in the twenty years ago, is still unoxidized. Capitalists of Bowling Green and Russelsville have gone into the movement for establishing there a great health resort and a building will shortly be begun.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1890.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

A live and growing city of 8,000 inhabitants, situated in a county of 40,000. The Louisville and Nashville has two lines of railroad in the county. The largest tobacco growing county in the world. Wheat, corn, hay, cotton, live stock and fruits produced for export in large quantities. The city has four banks with an aggregate capital of $1,000,000. A planing mill and wagon factory, three carriage factories, lime factory, tobacco manufactory, two foundries, three brickyards, broom factory, steam laundry, ice factory, two large flouring mills in the city and several in the county. Splendid driving par and fine opera house. Five turnpikes centering in Hopkinsville. Building and Loan Association, Commercial Club, a telephone exchange, numbered streets and houses and city lighted by gas. Macadamized streets and brick sidewalks all over the city. Eleven churches, two colleges, a high school and the finest system of public schools, white and colored, in the State. Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum with a population of 600, two miles east of the city. A $100,000 court house with town clock in the dome. A fine fire department and a company of State Guards. Little River furnishes an adequate supply of water for all purposes. Real estate low and rents cheap. Fine opening for woolen mill, pork packing establishment, fruit canning, tannery and many other enterprises. Climate mild and invigorating and exceedingly healthy.

Ex-Governor Perry, of Florida, died in Texas Tuesday, of consumption.

Dr. Talmage's unprepared sermon of last Saturday appeared as usual in Monday's paper.

The South Dakota legislature met in called session this week and elected two Republican Senators, Messrs. Moody and Pettigrew.

N. W. Nutting, the Republican Congressman who resigned a few days ago, died Tuesday at Oswego, N. Y. The vacancy will be filled Nov. 5.

The Democrats have about completed their arrangements to take Mahone up between a couple of chips and take him out of Virginia politics.

Maj. G. Matt Adams, Secretary of State, fell under a train at Eminence Monday and had one foot so badly crushed that four toes had to be amputated.

Grover Cleveland has gone to housekeeping in New York City in a rented house. Don't make a lease for longer than four years Grover, you may want to move.

Dr. Daniel Guber, recently Physician of the State Penitentiary at Frankfort, died Monday. He was one of the heroes of the yellow fever epidemic of 1878, who went to Memphis and Hickman to minister to the sick.

Gov. Hill, of New York, is in Atlanta this week and was booked for a speech at the exposition Wednesday. His welcome was of such a cordial character that the man who can carry New York may think a thought or two.

Tanner is still having himself interviewed and takes issue with Secretary Noble every time that official reverses one of his fraudulent rulings. It is getting about time for somebody to turn the hose on Tanner.

We are told that the name of Grover Cleveland was "wildly cheered" in a Democratic convention in Pennsylvania the other day. Pennsylvania Democrats can do no more cheering and less voting than any other Democrats in the country.

The Republicans are trying to throw out enough votes in one of the Democratic counties to give them control of the Montana legislature. It is a bold game, but two senatorships is a stake worth playing for. The matter is now in the courts.

The Georgetown Times has a "Colored People's Column" edited by a young man of that race. In a recent issue he gives Fred Douglass the following lively send-off:

Fred Douglass sailed for Hayti Saturday. Old Fred is competent, and in his day did much good for the race, but like the cows he kicked the pail over. He ignored all the pretty sweet yellow girls in the country and married a poor white woman. I hate him and all other negroes who want to be white and desire amalgamation.

The West Virginia gubernatorial contest will be settled by the legislature in extra session Dec. 1. The committee will recommend the seating of Fleming, the Democratic candidate, who was elected by 215 majority. The Republican members will submit a minority report declaring Douglass elected by a few votes. The legislature is Democratic by one majority and one of the Democrats is sick with Bright's disease. So it will be seen there is still no certainty as to what the final outcome will be.

The Mt. Auburn inclined plane, one of the four such cable roads in Cincinnati, was the scene of a fearful accident Tuesday. The cable broke when one of the cars with nine passengers locked in was at the top of the incline. The car being set free rushed down the slope at lightning speed and was smashed to pieces at the foot of the incline. Of the nine passengers, Judge W. M. Dickson, Michael Kneiss, Jos. Hockstetter and Joe McFadden were instantly killed. Chas. McFadden had both legs broken. Mrs. Hockstetter sustained cuts and internal injuries and Mrs. Jos. McFadden was cut and bruised. The hill is 300 feet high and it is 2,000 feet from the foot of the incline to the top.

A BIG IMPROVEMENT.

What a Progressive Council Can and Has Done

Towards Beautifying One of Our Principal Streets.

No one of an unbiased mind can fail to appreciate the great improvement that has been made to the general appearance of Ninth street from Main to the railroad. When the grading was begun a great many people were of the opinion that the "improvement" would be no improvement at all, and that it would be labor and money lost to the city; that no adequate benefit could result to anybody or anything, except to lighten the draft of loaded wagons and add a few days more to the not over-fair over-worked horses that draw them; that the city would be spending its money foolishly, etc.

But the new Council was determined to carry out its idea and the work was begun and has been pushed as rapidly as adverse circumstances would permit, and now, though not quite completed, the wisdom of the Council is clearly demonstrated. In place of a rough, uneven street, and rougher and uneven pavements, the eye is gladdened with a smooth and well drained street, and the pedestrian has beautiful and level pavements to walk on. Strangers coming into the city by rail can but be favorably impressed by the enterprise of our people as they wend their way to the business part of town.

In lowering the grade of the street the Council met several obstacles. The boulders had to be removed, the residence of Mrs. M. E. Rodgers, which was on a line with the pavement, had to be moved back, the old pavements had to be torn up, curbing could not be obtained, shade trees had to be removed, some of the property owners were unfavorable to the project, etc., but street superintendent Tryman had instructions to go ahead and do the work and well has he done it. Mrs. Rodgers' residence was moved back several feet from the street in such a perfect manner that she tells us that the cream which had risen on a glass of milk in one of her rooms was not shaken sufficiently to break the skin. Nothing has improved this street more than moving this house back from the line of the pavement. Mrs. Rodgers is well satisfied with the change.

The street at its highest point has been lowered but two and a half feet. Twelve hundred loads of dirt were hauled away gratis by citizens who needed it for filling up their lots. Superintendent Tryman hauled and sold over $50 worth, and the entire expense to the city for the whole work will not exceed $2,700 or $2,800—about half what most people would place it at. Mr. C. W. Duckert and Dr. Gunn have had their yards graded and sodded, and they present truly a beautiful appearance. The property owners along the thoroughfare, as well as the members of the three churches, are well pleased with the improvement and would not like to again have things back the way they were a few months since.

It was the purpose of the Council to change the grade and otherwise improve Seventh street this year, but as curbing could not be obtained in time, the work will probably be deferred until next spring. The expense of that improvement will hardly be as heavy as that of Ninth street.

Who can but endorse the action of the Council in what they have done? Our city boasts of her good streets and excellent pavements, and the present Council is entitled to a full share of praise for what it has done in this direction. Let the good work go on. The city's money has been well spent and economy has in every way characterized our "City Fathers."

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.
Furnished by GLOVER & DUBRETT.
Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,869, Hhds., with receipts for the same period of 1,585. Hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 107,393 Hhds. Sales on our market of the crop of 1888 to this date amount to 77,518. Hhds. The same dull low market may be quoted for all styles of dark or light tobacco, in fact this may be said to have been the week of the lowest prices of the season. The remedy is with the growers of tobacco and cannot be applied until the next planting season, then is another reasonably small crop is required. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco.

The Chickasaw Indian Nation has disfranchised all white men who have married squaws and the Supreme court of the Nation has confirmed the legality of the measure.

MATRIMONIAL.

No marriage licenses issued since the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Quint A. Elliott, of Lafayette, passed through the city Monday, enroute to St. Louis.

Mr. Will C. Morton and Miss Maude Ruby were married at Madisonville on the 15th.

Mr. J. M. Culp, general freight agent of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, was married at Louisville Tuesday to Miss Juliet Edmonds. They left on a Southern tour.

The widow of the late Alexander Tribble, who departed this life not very long ago, was married the other day to Clay Broadus, her over-seer and much her junior. The old lady confided to three-score years and ten—Stanford Interior Journal.

Mr. S. Walton Forgy and Miss Sallie Patrie were married at Ekton, Tuesday, as per announcement. Rev. Jas. McReynolds officiating. Mr. Forgy arrived here with his bride the same evening and they have taken rooms and board at Mr. J. M. Hester's, on Walnut Street.

John Hathaway, of Owensboro, and Miss Katie Major, of Henderson, met at Owensboro, and after a few days, courtship, were quietly and secretly married. The bride returned home the same day and two days later the groom followed her to Henderson armed with a marriage certificate and claimed her for his own. Both parties are highly contented.

W. H. Hollins, of Trenton, and Miss Helen Duffy, of Hendersonville, were married at the latter place Sunday and were married at the Baptist parsonage in this city by Dr. Sears. O'Brien, of Hendersonville, and Miss Eva Bailey, of this city, were the attendants. The parents of the young lady objected to the union because of the young ladies slight age.—Clarksville Progress.

Mr. Edwin C. Erwin and Miss Jessie Sweeney, prominent society factors of Owensboro, were married Tuesday evening in the Fourth street Presbyterian church of that city. The wedding was a very brilliant affair. There were four groomsmen, two flower girls, two maids of honor and four bridesmaids. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. J. C. Molloy. The couple left on the midnight train for a tour to the northwest. The bride is the only daughter of Hon. W. N. Sweeney and is a niece of Dr. P. T. Rogers of this city. She was one of the most accomplished belles of Owensboro. The groom is connected with the Deposit Bank in a clerical capacity.

STEEL-WATSON.

CADIZ, Ky., Oct. 18.—Married, at the Methodist church, Cadiz, Ky., at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. John A. Steele to Miss Bobbie Watson, Rev. W. B. Pinner officiating. The marriage of this couple has been talked of and discussed as a coming society event. Both are residents of Trigg county. A large assemblage of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. The church was handsomely and beautifully decorated with flowers that were blooming and blossoming with their fragrance. Four little beautiful girls, ("Of such is the kingdom of heaven") preceded the couple, a signification of purity, love and genuineness. Then came the chief actors of the occasion to the tune of the Wedding March, exquisitely played by Miss Lizzie McCarty. They proceeded to the end of the center aisle and there they were made one. The promise was fulfilled, the vows were pledged, the hopes realized, and then into the great drama of life they began a new play. They start upon that unknown sea. May their voyage meet tranquil waters and at last under shining stars reach a safe port.

After the ceremony the bride and groom proceeded to the home of the groom near Gracey, where friends will welcome them.

Now may God bless these young people. May the "Shining finger of hope's purest aspirations point to the goal of their fondest dreams," and may their home here in this world, by constancy, trust and faithfulness, be the precursor of that eternal home where there are no tears or sighs.

W. R. H.

A NOTABLE AFFAIR.

Monday, the 14th, was indeed a golden day in October. The tinted trees in silvery sheen are unfolding their beauty, displaying gems of every tint most charming to the eye. Nature in all loveliness appears and all things happy and bright herald the bridal morning. The very earth smiles to gladden the union of Quint A. Elliott and Miss Emma J. Cooper. Man woos and wins the flower to wear it as the victor's trophy; whilst woman, when she glories in her love, is more like the dove in noiseless constancy.

The invited guests to witness this quiet and secluded, yet very elegant marriage, pray that blessings may ever surround them and the future of life be unclouded as now.

This could be rightly styled a perfect union, the contracting parties being among the most talented and popular young people in our social circle. But forgive the wrong if some hearts bend down like violets after rain when they received the knowledge that love had sent his swift-winged messenger to claim Emma Cooper, one of God's purest and highest types of beautiful womanhood. Society, church and home will miss her greatly. True she will reside in our midst, but nearer joys and duties will claim her noble heart. But it makes the sacrifice much easier when we remember it is to bless and crown the life of such a perfect gentleman as Mr. Elliott.

Every Household

Should have Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It saves thousands of lives annually, and is peculiarly efficacious in Croup, Whooping Cough, and Sore Throat. "After an extensive practice of nearly one-third of a century, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is my cure for recent colds and coughs. I prescribe it, and believe it to be the very best expectorant now offered to the people."—Dr. John C. Lewis, Druggist, West Bridgewater, Pa. "Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being again a little troubled with the disease, I was promptly the same remedy. I gladly offer this testimony for the benefit of all similarly afflicted."—F. H. Hassler, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Neb. For children afflicted with colds, croup, sore throat, or cough, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of whooping cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1231 Washington street, Boston, Mass. "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has proved remarkably effective in croup and is invaluable in all cases of croup."—D. M. Bryant, Chickopee Falls, Mass.

Relieved By

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1.00, six bottles, $5.00.

Rev. C. P. Peters pronounced a very appropriate and impressive ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Elliott left on a ten days' tour to the principal cities.

They were exceedingly well remembered by such appreciative reminders as diamonds, gilt clocks, silver services and many others.

This is the most eventful occasion Lafayette has had for years.

With hearty good wishes they leave us, God bless lady and God bless groom.

DEATHS.

Mrs. John Tott died near Trenton, on the 10th inst., aged 36 years. She died of consumption. Rev. E. N. Dicken preached her funeral.

Sam'l H. Jones, of Montgomery county, Tenn., one of the deacons of Blooming Grove Baptist church, died on the 9th inst.

Lee M. Wood, a prominent farmer of the Sinking Fork neighborhood, died Monday night of inflammation of the stomach, aged 48 years. He had only been sick a few days. He leaves a family.

Carl P. Stewart, son of Jas. D. Stewart, of the Antioch neighborhood, eight miles from town, died Tuesday of diphtheria, aged four years.

Infant of Mr. Quarles in the Antioch neighborhood Wednesday.

Marion Lewis Wood, a little daughter of Mr. Jas. R. Wood, died Wednesday morning of membranous croup, aged seven years. She had been sick only a few days. Interment at 3 o'clock the same day.

COLOR.

Christian County Pomona Grange.

The next meeting of the Christian County Pomona Grange will be held with Church Hill Grange on Friday, Oct. 25, 1890, at 10 o'clock a. m. The following is the program:

Do our present laws and system of government demand political action in the grange?—Dr. J. D. Clardy.

The comparative value of beef and dairy products and cost of production.—G. V. Green.

Some of the most important qualifications to insure success on the farm.—J. F. Garrett.

The grasses and their cultivation.—J. L. Mosely.

Are farmers' organizations beneficial to the average farmer?—M. B. King.

To what extent should the grange co-operate with other farmers organizations?—C. D. Bell.

How to make a living without work.—George Pierce.

The discussion of these questions will begin at 10 o'clock in open grange and everybody is invited to attend and participate.

FAIRVIEW.

FAIRVIEW, Ky., Oct. 16.—Gray & Bro's tobacco barn that burned on the 8th was the most terrible conflagration that has visited this vicinity since the big fire at Fairview several years ago. This is the second time Mr. Gray has burned out.

An old gentleman named Wood died on the 7th near Mt. Vernon. He was the father of Mr. Wm. Wood, of Fairview.

Mr. Jas. Moore and wife, of Trigg county, are visiting relatives near here.

Mr. M. R. Tandy cut his foot with a corn knife yesterday and made a very painful though not serious wound.

Master Browder Carroll, son of Mr. Wm. Carroll, is quite sick with diphtheria.

Raymond, son of B. L. Yancey, cut his foot with a tobacco knife one day last week and the little fellow has to go on crutches.

Remember, no old shop-worn, hand-me-down stock, everything BRIGHT AND NEW.

M. Frankel's Sons,

"THE RELIABLE" CLOTHING & SHOE CO.

A Swell Affair.

The cloak and dress-making department of Bassett & Co's dry goods store will be formally opened next Tuesday, Oct. 22, and the affair will eclipse anything of the kind ever seen in Hopkinsville. Every preparation will be made to make the opening a pleasant event for all who may be present. One feature will be the serving of tea to the ladies in the cloak room up-stairs. Every visitor will be presented with an elegant and valuable souvenir. The display of cloaks and fine dress goods will be exceptionally handsome and complete in every respect. The ladies are cordially invited to attend. Those desiring to purchase goods in this line will find no difficulty in selecting something to suit their fancy, as the stock embraces everything in the way of cloaks and dress goods and at prices heretofore unknown in Hopkinsville. The ladies will miss a treat if they fail to attend this swell affair.

The Holman Company.

The Jenny Holman Comedy Company are playing each night this week with a change of bill, at the opera house. The engagement opened Wednesday night with "Dad's Girl" and the company had good houses both Wednesday and Thursday nights. The performances to-night and to-morrow night will be still better and the attendance promises to be very large, as the city is full of people. The music of the band and orchestra is first class and is not the least enjoyable feature of the entertainments.

FAIR WEATHER.

The Races in Progress and Drawing Good Crowds.

What is on the Program To-Day.

Never was there lovelier weather than the races have been favored with this week. The first day was a success in everything excepting the balloon ascension. Owing to an accident the balloon did not go up Wednesday, but the ascension was promised for yesterday afternoon without extra charge.

There was a considerable display of horses and mules in the exhibit rings, but we have not been furnished with a list of the premiums awarded.

There were three races on Wednesday. The Merchants' Stake for 2-year-olds was won by S. & E., best three in five. Time 2:51 1/2.

The 2:45 trot was won by Polk Lad. Time 2:39. The novelty running race was won by Somerset in 1:49.

Yesterday the first race was a mile heat for 3-year-olds. There were two entries. The 2:25 trot was the event of the day. In this race there were three entries, one of them the little favorite, Nora G. The third race was a one mile hurdle race, six jumps, with two entries. The results had not been reported when we went to press.

To-day the morning program embraces the exhibit of harness stock, eight rings.

This afternoon there will be three speed rings—a 1/2 mile dash for $75, a 2:35 trot for $200 and a 1/2 mile running race for $75.

To-morrow the morning exhibits will be roadsters and combined stock, eight rings. In the afternoon there will be three speed rings—a running race for $100, free-for-all trot for $300 and the Frankel Handicap to conclude the program.

The Munford Murder Case.

The trial of Garrett Munford and the other parties charged with the murder of Pike Radford on Oct. 6, was concluded yesterday. The five men arrested on the warrant sworn out by Wm. Long were released, as there was no evidence against them. Munford was held over under a $500 bond and is now in jail till March. When put on the stand Munford told a very poorly connected tale and was evidently lying. He claimed that they met in the road and that Radford assaulted him and got him down and was about to kill him with a knife when he got out his own knife and proceeded to defend himself, and then left him in the road.

Radford was cut on both sides of the neck, on the arm twice and stabbed once in the abdomen and twice in the back. All this Munford claims was done in self defense, although Radford's knife with tobacco crumbs in it was found closed in the dead man's pocket. The defense will attempt to advance the theory that Radford was killed by the cut on the arm and that he fell into the sink hole 200 yards away while trying to find a house, as he was bleeding to death. As Radford knew every house in five miles of the place and as his money had been stolen and the body had evidently been dragged, this tale is decidedly disphenous. The killing was a brutal assassination and Munford's neck should pay the penalty.

The timely frost destroyed every lingering vestige of diphtheria ten days ago. There has not been a case in town this month.

The young ladies of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church will give an oyster supper on Oct. 18, for the benefit of the church.

It has often been remarked by strangers that Hopkinsville has more neat and attraction looking residences than any town of its size in Kentucky.

Dud Cayce, col., was arrested yesterday charged with attempting to rape an old colored woman named Alice Greenway, near the gas house. His trial was set for Monday.

When you want next job printing come to the KENTUCKIAN office. We have every facility for turning out work promptly and in the best manner, and at the lowest prices.

Thompson & McReynolds make a specialty of undertaking this line of their business being in the hands of W. M. Ducker, the veteran undertaker, who thoroughly understands his business.

It is lawful on and after Oct. 20 to kill game birds in Kentucky, excepting in the counties of Christian, Campbell, Fayette and Kenton. In these counties the law continues in effect until Nov. 1.

The new cement pavements in front of the Ninth Street Presbyterian Church and the Eugene Mills Warehouse are the prettiest in the city, and if they stand the freezes and thaws of winter will be all the style.

Bishop McCloskey will arrive in the city to-morrow and hold services at the Catholic church at 10:30, after which he will administer the rite of confirmation. He will leave for his home on the afternoon train.

J. J. Mabry, Esq., of Carlisle county, Ky., will address the people at Locust Grove church on to-morrow at 7 o'clock p. m. on the subject of agriculture and the interests of farmers. Everybody is invited to attend.

Dr. Coleman, who was to preach the dedicatory sermon at South Union Sunday, will not be present to fill his appointment. The new house will be dedicated, however, by the pastor and other ministers from neighboring churches.

In the Court of Appeals Tuesday the recent opinion affirming the decision of the lower court in the case of Mercer vs. Glass' executor, from Christian county, was withdrawn and a new opinion delivered dismissing the appeal.

Johnson & Co., Cerulean Springs, have received their new fall stock of goods, clothing, notions, &c., and are offering some first class inducements that will pay those in that vicinity to look over their stock, as some bargains can be had.

Ninth street in front of Mrs. M. E. Rodgers' house is now in first-class condition, so the ladies need have no fear about being unable to get to her house. Her line of millinery goods is complete and it will be a pleasure to show her lady friends through.

Thompson & McReynolds are constantly receiving new furniture and now have on hand some very handsome new sets of bed room furniture, which those about to marry or who are contemplating matrimony would do well to examine. Their prices are so cheap for all kinds of furniture that they will surprise you.

Miss Annie Bancum, of Nashville, begs to inform her numerous friends that she has connected herself with the large Millinery and Ladies' Furnishing Goods House of L. Jones & Co., "The Palace" 410 Union St., Nashville, where she will be pleased to show the most magnificent line of fine French Millinery and Fancy Goods ever seen in any House in the United States. A call will be appreciated.

CREAM OF NEWS.

After Lawyer Feland's Gore.

Late Monday afternoon a young man named Sam Jones, who lives in the country, drew a pistol on John Feland, Jr., in Holland's billiard room on Main street. Mr. Holland saw the action from the rear of the store and started rapidly towards the parties, but before he reached them Jones went out at the door pulling Mr. Feland by the arm, still holding the pistol in one hand and threatening to shoot. As he reached the pavement in front of the door, Policeman Fritz, who was near by, saw him and rushed upon him and struck Jones over the head. In the scuffle Jones' pistol was discharged, the ball striking the pavement.

The trouble came up over a fee due Mr. Feland by another young man, who took him to Jones saying the latter had his money and would pay it. This Jones declined to do and flew into a passion, being under the influence of liquor.

Jones was tried Wednesday before Judge Brasher and fined $65 and costs. He expressed much regret for his action and was very grateful to the officer who arrived in time to prevent him from doing violence to a man against whom he bore no malice. Mr. Jones should let this be a warning and a temperance lesson to him and stop getting drunk.

Kissing on the Sly.

One night this week a loving colored couple were walking on Main street just after dark, and when opposite the Universalist church, the man, who had his arm around the waist of "his girl," and who was oblivious to all surroundings, imprinted a kiss upon the lips of the dark damsel which was plainly heard by a gentleman and two or three ladies who were about fifty feet behind them. The report of the kiss caused a loud laugh by the observers, which prompted the loving swain to drop his arm from the waist of the dusky maid quicker than thought and to increase the pace of the loving couple to something less than "2:40."

A Thief Pulled.

Wednesday night while C. R. Clark's grocery store was crowded, a negro thief successfully and successfully got away with two hens, four small chickens, half a gallon of brandy, a butcher-knife and two heads of cabbage. The articles were taken to the Rock Spring and concealed in a barrel one by one. While trying to add a ham to his collection the rascal was detected and arrested. He gave up all the stolen articles and was lodged in jail. His name is Jim Watson and he has been held over on a $100 bond.

A Frightful Death.

Marshall Brumfield was run over by a freight train at Madisonville Saturday afternoon last, and instantly killed. The train was backing up to the depot and Brumfield stepped down the track when he was knocked down and run over. His body was mangled in a horrible manner, his head being mashed to a pulp. Deceased was about 35 years old and leaves a family.

A Double Pig.

A stranger who arrived this week from Evansville brought with him in a jar of alcohol a pig having one head and two distinct bodies joined on the breast bone. The head has one mouth and two eyes and ears like an ordinary pig. The bodies are both perfectly formed, each with four legs and feet. Both of them are females and in color are black with a few white spots.

A Head Splitting.

Late Saturday afternoon last Tom Dunn and Cephas Lancaster had a row near Ross' landing, on the Cumberland river. Dunn struck Lancaster on the head with an axe, splitting his head in a horrible manner. Dunn made his escape. Lancaster was not dead at last accounts but there is little hope of his recovery.

Eq. Jno. S. Long, of Crofton, who came within one vote of being nominated for jailer in 1886, is again a candidate for the Democratic nomination. He is one of the leading citizens of north Christian and is a clever gentleman who will at once become one of the strongest men in the race. Should he be nominated, the Republicans would find him a hard man to beat.

Bates Wall, the efficient bookkeeper McGehee Bros., while attempting to jump over a gate at Mr. McGehee's residence on First street late Saturday evening fell quite heavily to the ground and broke his right arm between the elbow and wrist. Dr. Runyon was sent for and dressed the fractured arm, and Mr. Wall is doing as well as could be expected. He is at his desk as usual.—Clarksville Progress.

Mr. Geo. W. Metcalfe has returned from Logan county, where he purchased a fine young horse gentle enough for a lady to drive. Girls, take notice.
